c. Reported on the dinner he attended in New York on Monday, 9 July, at which representatives of the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations were present. A separate memorandum on this has been prepared.

Mr. Wisner:

a. Noted he had received a rather urgent call from Howard Furnas of State seeking guidance as to what the Secretary of State should say at his press conference today should the press raise the Soviet blasts regarding "US agents inciting Poznan riots". After some discussion it was agreed Mr. Furnas would be informed that if this question comes up the Secretary would merely reply that the Polish government itself has already admitted that the riots were due to bad working conditions and therefore the propagandistic nature of the blasts was perfectly obvious.

b. Noted that after a talk with Messrs. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] he felt he now understood the Syrian situation much better and suggested the Director would also benefit by such a briefing. The Director indicated he would see these two officers. ACTION: Mr. [REDACTED] undertook to arrange this. 25X1A9a

d. Noted in a recent conversation with Adm. Stump the Admiral had mentioned a certain Ambassador and point blank asked the question as to why CIA did not turn in a report on this man. Mr. Wisner said he made it clear to Adm. Stump such an action would be completely out of CIA's bailiwick and suggested that he take ~~it~~ ^{his complaint} up with his (Stump's) luncheon guest of that day -- Walter Robertson.
